An effective method for figuring out a price is to send out a survey to your current customers. If these customers have already bought an e book from you, ask for his or her opinion when it comes to price. Do that by making a sales web page for the new guide, however do not embrace a value on that page. One other strategy is to check out costs by making a variety of duplicate gross sales pages with totally different costs on each page. Ensure your sales copy is strictly the identical on every web page, and contains your selling-handle sentence. Then work out for every page the conversion ratio between visitors to your web site and gross sales of your book. This will let you know what your optimum price is.

Finally, for those who've written a ebook that solves a problem or presents a new approach, your book will usher in both visitors and profits.
